FROM COLOMBIA TO WISCONSIN

The Negret family's 70-year winemaking history...

1937: Young entrepreneur Miguel Negret founds "Negret-Montes & Cia", the first Negret family winery, specializing in Vermouth, Port and Moscatel wines.

1952: Miguel retires and his sons Luis & Vicente take over the business, renaming it "Bodegas de Champaña" with Colombia's first sparkling wine.

1984: Vicente and his two sons Juan Pablo and Vincent Jr. launch a new winery called "Vinerias del Castillo", becoming the first local winery in Colombia's history to be served on the country's flagship airline, AVIANCA.

1994: During a period of extreme political turmoil in Colombia, the drug cartels dominate the market. After Vincent and Juan Pablo refuse to give in to their repeated extortion attempts, the powerful cartels buy their main competitors and flood the market with cheap wine, causing "Vinerias del Castillo" to go out of business.

2000: Vincent Jr. heads to the US, hoping to start over and create a better life for his family.

2015: After 14 years as a successful winemaker at several Midwest wineries, Vincent Jr. founds the Negret Wine Company and brings 77 years of winemaking tradition to Hudson!
